"Colleolivo House"

Located in the picturesque municipality of Arce, in a quiet residential area and more precisely in Via Colleolivo, we offer for sale an interesting detached house with garden.

This property offers a unique opportunity for those looking to create their ideal residence.

Arce is a charming town in Lazio, known for its rich history and local traditions.

The property extends over a surface area of approximately 117 m² and is composed of four large rooms and a bathroom (to be created).

The house is completely in need of renovation, it represents a blank canvas for those who wish to personalize every detail and every room according to their tastes and needs.

The private garden, completely fenced, offers an ideal outdoor space for moments of relaxation or to host outdoor activities.

The property is equipped with a LPG gas system with tank, septic tank for waste water management and connection to municipal water, thus ensuring the essential services for a comfortable residence.

Arce offers a quiet and welcoming environment, ideal for those seeking a life away from the chaos of the city.

The strategic position of the town allows easy access to both the natural beauties of the Liri Valley and the main communication arteries.

This property represents an unmissable opportunity for those looking to invest in a home to customize.
